PROVISIONS OF THE RENTAL AGREEMENT

Tables for the bourse for this national convention will be rented only to members in good standing of the American Political Items Collectors. The sizes of the tables are indicated on the Convention Registration Form. Every member who rents one or more tables must read this Table Agreement Form and agree to its provisions, sign the form, and return it with the Convention Registration Form.

1. At all times, member exhibitors shall display good character and act in a manner that will not bring disrepute on the organization.
2. Member exhibitors shall ensure that their tables are attended for the entire advertised duration of the bourse except in the case of an emergency by request of the Convention Chairman.
3. Member exhibitors who desire to send material to the hotel prior to the convention can do so however the shipments must be addressed to the member's name registered at the hotel. Arrangements for shipping materials should be made directly with the hotel in advance. Shipped materials should be picked up upon arrival at the hotel.
4. Member exhibitors are responsible for transporting their material to and from the bourse area and for the complete removal of all material prior to departure from the convention.
5. Member exhibitors shall ensure that their bourse area is neat and clean upon their departure and shall place all trash in the receptacles provided.
6. All material presented for sale during the convention shall conform to the requirements of the APIC Code of Ethics. If the authenticity of an item is disputed, the item shall be presented to a committee of three executive board members for their evaluation. If the item is deemed to be in violation of the APIC Code of Ethics, the item shall be removed from the area where it is being offered for sale.
7. The National Convention Committee will be responsible for providing uniformed security services in the bourse and exhibit areas.
8. The member exhibitor assumes responsibility and agrees to indemnify and defend the APIC and the hotel (and their respective employees and agents) against any claims or expenses arising out of the use of the hotel premises for the convention.
9. The member exhibitor understands that neither the APIC nor the hotel maintains insurance covering the property of the member exhibitor and that it is the sole responsibility of the member exhibitor to obtain such insurance.
